

KRUUSE Heparin Cap

The Heparin Cap is intended for use with an IV catheter, whereby it is fixed to the catheter instead of the usual cap or stylet. Once in place, clinical staff can make injections through the membrane without removing the cap, thus making the administration of medicine easy and fast.

Individually packed in blisters.

Cat. No 230675
100/pk

